

Preaching: 9 October 2021

“Blessed is the womb that carried you and the breasts at which you nursed.” He replied, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.”

To hear the Word of God is to start on the path to a blessed life. However, it is not enough to just “hear”. We must internalize those words and allow it to become a part of our lives. We must fully understand what Christ requires of us...the Word made Flesh! Failure to follow His continuous and gentle command to love will result in being unable to clearly hear Him at all. We will become confused and easily influenced by the many other worldly voices and unable to discern the holy path that is the Christian way, the Dominican way.

Pray and contemplate to discern the meaning of God’s Word; commit yourself to time of humble and wholehearted discovery. Listen for His gentle but clear voice in a world mired with “wisdom” that is not God’s. He is always speaking to you. Hear and observe. In Christ’s Love.
